

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Answer 10 of the following:

1. Civilian retailers who sold goods to soldiers: _____
2. The most common drill manual for infantry was written by William _____
3. The most common "medicine" used to anesthetize: _____
4. Ankle high boots that laced up in the front: _____
5. Another name for a "forage cap": _____
6. A cloth bag with a strap worn over the shoulder to carry rations & personal items. _____
7. The Confederate Army's main supplier of infantry weapons and all military goods was the _____
8. Used by both the North & the South, British made P1853 muskets were called _____ rifles.
9. These were _____ caliber weapons.
10. The most common U.S. Army rifles were _____ caliber & were
11. manufactured in _____, Massachusetts.
12. Confederate copies of this musket were made in _____, Virginia.
13. A small leather pouch worn on the right front of an infantrymans belt carries _____.
14. Cavalry rifles are "2 banded" and therefore _____ than infantry rifles.
15. Leggings worn to protect pants, ankles, and shoes are called _____.

Name _____ Date _____ Period _____

Answer 10 of the following:

1. Civilian retailers who sold goods to soldiers: _____
2. The most common drill manual for infantry was written by William _____.
3. The most common "medicine" used to anesthetize: _____
4. Ankle high boots that laced up in the front: _____
5. Another name for a "forage cap": _____
6. A cloth bag with a strap worn over the shoulder to carry rations & personal items. _____
7. The Confederate Army's main supplier of infantry weapons and all military goods was the _____
8. Used by both the North & the South, British made P1853 muskets were called _____ rifles.
9. These were _____ caliber weapons.
10. The most common U.S. Army rifles were _____ caliber & were
11. manufactured in _____, Massachusetts.
12. Confederate copies of this musket were made in _____, Virginia.
13. A small leather pouch worn on the right front of an infantrymans belt carries _____.
14. Cavalry rifles are "2 banded" and therefore _____ than infantry rifles.
15. Leggings worn to protect pants, ankles, and shoes are called _____.

